

Phillip Jackson

phillip jackson
b.arch. director

phillip@guymerbailey.com.au brisbane office
ph + 61 7 3870 9700

Senior Architect / Director

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Architecture, University of Technology, 1998
- Member of the RIAA and Registered Architect, QLD, VIC

Role

Director – As our Design Director, based in Brisbane Phil specialises in cohesive and considered design. His love for quality design from conception through to construction insures the delivery of outstanding products and satisfied clients. As well as his architectural duties Phil shares in the responsibility of personnel management and human resourcing.

Professional Experience

- Design, documentation and contract administration experience as Project Architect for commercial developments; residential and multi- residential; institutional, including educational and judicial facilities.
- ArchiCAD design and documentation.
- Project Team Coordination and Facilitator

(2006 - Present) - Director / Design Manager : Guymer Bailey Architects (Brisbane)
 (1998 - 2006) - Senior Project Architect : Guymer Bailey Architects (Brisbane)
 (1995 - 1998) - Architectural Technician : Guymer Bailey Architects (Brisbane)

Projects

Recent projects include :

Due North Residential Development,
Shoal Point, Mackay, 2008, $40m

Denarau Island Resort, Fiji, Trendwest
South Pacific, 2006, $11m

Diddlibah Masterplanned Sustainable Community, The Habitat, 2005, $20m

Brisbane Supreme & District Court, (In association with Architectus), 2006 - present, $395m

Caloundra Christian College - Upgrades, Caloundra, 2001 - present
$11m

Acacia Correctional Centre, Wooroloo,
(In association with Peter Hunt Architects), 1999, $75m

Pine Rivers Courthouse & Watchhouse,
2006 - present, $16m

Kings Beach Pool & Parkland - Redevelopment, Caloundra City Council, 2002 - 2006, $12m

Caloundra Courthouse & Watchhouse,
Caloundra, 2004, $11m

Pacific Bay Resort Coffs Harbour, Trendwest South Pacific, 2006 -
present, $15m

Eastbank Community Centre, Kawana
Waters, Caloundra City Council, 2005,
$11m

Riva Maroochydore, Residential Tower
Reed Property, 2006 - present, $18m